

I think the law should remain the same and also possibly add calls from organizations requesting donations. Isn't it enough we get bombarded by mail from all organizations! If I have extra money hanging around I do make checks out to some favorite charities. But I do hate to receive call from them requesting more and more.